Programme Handicaps

1. Shortage of extension staff in Blocks / GPs / Line Departments
2. Work overload on the existing staff.
3. Inadequacy of training.
4. Inadequate banking support in remote areas
5. Inadequacy of infrastructure – roads, bridges, telephones, post & telegraph, electricity
6. Lack of awareness of Government Programmes in the rural community
7. Insignificant people's participation
8. Programmes become privy to PRIs/Blocks/Line Departments

Salient Features of BNVs

1. Identified by SIRDs/District Administration in sizeable numbers from among select members of Gram Sabha
2. Trained by SIRDs/District Administration on Programmes and human values
3. Networked with PRIs, District Administration, Line Departments and Banks
4. Each volunteer assigned 10 to 40 families to facilitate improvement of their physical quality of life through Government Programmes.
5. They facilitate organization of Gram Sabhas and formulation/execution of plans under flagship programmes
6. Empowers members of the Gram Sabha to understand and play their stipulated roles as conceived in the Programme
7. Personal profile entered in ruraldiksha.nic.in website
8. Issued an Identity Card
9. Act as pressure group for correcting distortions in implementation of Government Programmes as they are in significant numbers in a village.
10. Quality control tool in the form of 10-Point Performance Metrics being employed.
11. Department-wise roles assigned to BNVs by District Collector, Bhilwara

Motivating Factors for Volunteers

1. Selection by Government Agencies and registration in Government website (ruraldiksha.nic.in) gives special status to identified persons vis-a-vis others in the community.
2. Builds a pathway to Government for the common man
3. Provides an opportunity to get fast track redressal of grievances who are otherwise helpless.
4. Networks them with Government, Banking Institutions which is invaluable.
5. Gives an identity to persons who are otherwise faceless to administration.
6. Furnishes a mechanism to enter active social life and do good for the village.
7. SMSs from officials to the Volunteers gives evidence of their special position in governance.

BNVs contributions

1. Helped people get death certificates, ration cards, OAPs, Job Cards, free agricultural implements, guided people how to follow government procedure to obtain services from government
2. Unification of warring factions
3. Neutralized vested interest groups
4. Shramdaan* to build roads, tanks & to clean up streets
5. Free eye camps, village library
6. Summer coaching for school children
7. General Health Check up
8. Put drop outs back to school
9. Collected surplus foodgrains from village and redistributed among the poor

The BNV

Effect

1. Public access to Government Offices eases

2. Improved penetration in remote villages of local administration

3. Gram Sabhas & People take charge of preparation & monitoring of plans

4. Curbing of corruption, leakages and misuse of programmes by proper management of projects and beneficiaries with instant ground truthing

5. Helping hand to the local administration in disaster management, execution of programmes, redressal of grievances, conduct of enquiries, etc.

6. Genuine beneficiaries get the support and middlemen are avoided

7. Facilitation in dissemination of new technology, best practices and innovations

Impact of BNV at grassroots

1. Organisation of a strong group to support Panchayats and programmes
2. Better delivery of Government Programmes
3. Reduction in Rent Seeking
4. Greater transparency
5. Empowerment of the weaker sections
6. Empowerment of Panchayats
7. Conflict resolution and reduction
8. Re-generation of community spirit
9. Real Government of the people, for the people, by the people.

- ✓ The three colours signify the rural resurgence with Bharat Nirman
- ✓ The image of one person at the center reflects the identity of Bharat Nirman Volunteer as a friend of the people & government
- ✓ The images of other persons indicate other members of the village community who rally for village unity, harmony and development
- ✓ The values of 'Yagya, Danam, Tapah' imbue the actions of the community for unity, harmony & development

ID	Performance Metric	Yes	Likely	Can't Say	No
1.	Have BNVs been trained to work with the people, PRIs and Line Departments to improve the quality of life of the households attached with the BNVs ?
2	Are weekly visits to the selected village being made to train people with the help of BNVs to constitute sectoral Committees for identifying issues, planning and change management ?
3	Are the BNVs acting as pressure groups to drive the change in the rural community ?
4	Are the people involved in planning, implementing, monitoring and auditing of the programmes ?
5	Are the Line Departments supporting the formulation and implementation of the plans to achieve the programme objectives ?

ID	Performance Metric	Yes	Likely	Can't Say	No
6	Is the entire process being documented through films and uploaded on website ?
7	Are the BNVs being awarded for their meritorious contribution ?
8	Has the change process in the village become firmly entrenched and irreversible ?
9	Are the events in the village being disseminated in other villages to inspire them to initiate similar change process ?
10	Has a Win-Win situation emerged for all stakeholders – BNVs, people, PRIs, Line Departments, District Administration, State and Central Governments?

Way Forward

1. Each IAP District may develop a cadre of Volunteers
2. GPs may be identified in each Block to begin training programmes with the help of SIRDs & Line Departments
3. Profiles may be entered in website ruraldiksha.nic.in
4. Trained BNVs to act as eyes and ears of Government and prepare and monitor village development plans and their implementation
5. Ten Point Performance Metrics to be filled up villagewise to measure and track progress
